

Base: We know each angle of a square is 90 deg: the last math digit and zero. As per rules of maths it's selfless action of human centred on truth and the unseen, thereby salvation. The sum of 4 angles 360: space-time-consciousness and law. The 3 dissimilar fundamental constituents in entirely different planes, impossible to unite even in thinking are: one is space, one time, one consciousness. Written distinctly as: 111. Adding the law: 1116. As colour denotes space-time-consciousness, we can replace 111 by colour. Based on rules of colour given to nature, it's the dark red of soil, dark green of foliage and deep blue of sky in the ratio 117, with one colour from the 3 joining with the same colour as 6, the law. Just as when math order passes through the basic law of the golden ratio it provides pleasing appearance, when the golden ratio passes through colour it provides feelings of most pleasantness, warmth and appeal. The area of a circle (0.785) evolving out of a unit square represents 7 denoting the unseen and 2 of the golden numbers. Just as the golden ratio is pleasing to the eye, the ordering of all points pleasing to one another results in a circle. In nature, the golden ratio is seen represented by a form or an object. If golden ratio has its own form, then it must indeed be unique and most precious. The symbols given below have evolved from the sequence 1,1,2,3,5 through 6 stages of law. Its inside is a symbolic representation of its math analyses. This own form of golden ratio is also the basis of face given to human—the only creation in universe that's given knowledge of the unseen. It's given in the next Manifest page. The most elevated in realms of thinking is the ability to intellectually think about the unseen and the Creator—the cause for creation of universe. It's also the unavoidable deed of human to think about the reason for being here in material universe. An awareness regarding the unseen as a feeling that something factually exists beyond this visibility prevailed from the beginning of humankind. To satisfy such a state of mind human approached it in the light of acquired knowledge and experience existing at each time.

Preface: Such a phase has never happened before, happens just once. Wisdom of utmost significance relating science and humanity is getting revealed exposing the causal basis behind everything from the tiniest of particles to mighty galaxy clusters. Confirming all phases of knowledge from first human until now brought by prophets, reformers, visionaries, scientists and thinkers, it discloses with logical evidence why human stands distinct with intellect from rest of the species, why the Earth exists with its innumerable species, nature and ecology, is kept in the solar system with its lively habitat at position, orbit and distance from the Sun, and why humankind is included in this habitat. Its realm includes bases of hue and maths, particles and cells, species and planets, stars and galaxies, water and air, in short everything. We learn now the physical and functional characteristics of atoms, cells, plant and animal species, natural phenomena, solar system, galaxies and dark energy. It's possible to decode the encoded primal reasons of why each object and species formed and functions thus. Just as travelling to infinities of universe, we read here about the journey to infinities of intellect. Knowing how an object forms and functions with its nature will take us with proof to the causality of formation and functioning of entire universe. Just as we interpreted the great book of human genes in genome project, we can know causal reasons behind occurrences of natural phenomena and evolution of species with precise, clear proofs. Deep reflection, supreme logical reasoning, true knowledge based on first principles and scientifically acquired broad factual descriptions of the universe are necessary to grasp such matters at first. To help us decrypt the basic truths encrypted in every species including human body, in natural phenomena, solar system, and whole of the universe we'll have its secret codes of maths, geometry, hue, primal facts of space-time-consciousness, and Scripture in formula form existing for millennia. Human, the first effect of the First Cause (Creator '1 > 1' Soul) behind the origin of the universe gifted with exceptional ability to ponder about the unseen, entered the physical universe and is at the doors of <sup>1</sup>Humanics, true birth-intended abode. Revealing the <sup>2</sup>Huematical Theory of Everything, the Wisdom appears as the Inevitable Reality and an order to humanity.

Prepare: To enter the extensive areas of exalted phase <sup>2</sup>Ceenom destined for human a comprehensive endeavour must be initiated at once. A team of exceptionally competent, responsible intellects with strong scientific background and logical thinking is needed to grasp matters, subject them to close scrutiny and evidences, and fulfil obligation to convey to humankind. This Message is part of this effort. Fact that it's given to one human mind signifies Wisdom has been disclosed. Every intellect needs to hasten to know the Reality and take part in this unparalleled moment. Universities like Oxford, Harvard, MIT and Cambridge, research centres such as NASA, ESA, CERN and LIGO, renowned scientists, Nobel laureates, all heads of nations, leaders of religions including the Hinduism, Judaism, Christianity and Islam, science academies, judiciary, UN, scientific journals and media including National Geographic, Discovery and Animal Planet need to act collectively in this most important stage. Message Ceenom is only a preface and has been sent to the List Informed (Ch:58). Every capable individual who receives this has a duty to read attentively without prejudice, think deeply and take the right decision quickly. I expect each of you will carry out your duty depending on your position and authority. As time is precious, we can't have it for praises or opinions. This is informed to over 2000 important places because: (i) I'm made to perceive clear proofs regarding matters of greatest significance that existed from the earliest time but had no single answer; (ii) I understand that a human society must be formed that guides forward every fundamental fact about everything scientifically, logically, without conflicting beliefs or prejudices, enjoining righteousness and creativity along the birth-intended path; that this wisdom is transferred to them; and (iii) I'm fulfilling what I've been ordered to. Since the entire universe and its phenomena are set up for human, the sublime creation, before the first pulse before the first particle of the countless galaxies, we as humans must find the primal causal laws determined in that undisclosed state. Just as life and body are essential for a soul's presence, this evidence-based Wisdom is a must for human journey to its destination. With clear logical thinking we must enter most extensive phase ceenom at once. Abdul Khader ☪ Ceenom
